

New stable complex proving a hit!

Light and airy the flash new stable complex at THT's Latrobe complex is receiving rave reviews across the equestrian sector.

The 36m by 12m breezeway barn boasts 17 stables, with safety being the number one priority. Each of the 4m by 4m stables are deep bedded with our much sort after shavings and have large water containers and tyre feeders along with the overflowing haybags.

The stables are managed by local racehorse and dressage identity Leanne Gaffney, who keeps them in tip top shape, call by for a look next time your in the area.

Big trip for Equitana

Shane Ransley and his two beautiful partners (his wife is beautiful too) made the voyage down from Logan Village in Queensland to the Royal Melbourne Show grounds for what was a very cold and windy week at Equitana.

Steve took part in the very successful "The Way of the Horse" competition, where he demonstrated his ability to connect with an unbroken horse over two very short days. For more information on Shane's sought after services visit his web site at www.quantumsavvy.com
